The Hutchins School, established in 1846, one of the oldest continually running schools in Australia. The school is an Anglican day and boarding school for boys from Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12.

Located in the centre of Tasmania's capital city, Hobart. The main campus lies on the slopes of Mount Nelson, overlooking the picturesque River Derwent and is adjacent to the Sandy Bay campus of the University of Tasmania. The school is 20 mins away from Hobart International Airport.

St Michael's Collegiate School, Since 1892 we have been the leading Anglican girls' school in the heart of Hobart, Tasmania. We provide exceptional learning opportunities from the early learning years through to Year 12. We embody our values of Courage, Integrity and Compassion and are proud of our modern inclusive community where all families are welcome. Collegiate's brother school is The Hutchins School, with whom they share their Year 11 and 12 classes and many other brother/sister school activities.
